

Additional data protection information

The party responsible for the personal data collected in connection with your contact data, including first and last name, job title, business address, e-mail address and telephone number is Covestro Deutschland AG, Kaiser-Wilhelm-Allee 60, 51373 Leverkusen, Germany.

The data protection officer can be contacted at the aforementioned address as well as at the telephone number +49 214 6009 2000 or the e-mail address data.privacy@covestro.com.

Your personal data in connection with this consent will be processed by Covestro Deutschland AG for the purposes set out in the declaration of consent. The legal basis for this data processing is your consent pursuant to Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. a of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The personal data will be deleted either after revocation of your consent or at the latest 2 years after termination of the contractual relationship with the customer in whose agency you are active, always at the end of the respective calendar year unless there are legal retention periods to the contrary.

We will only pass on your data within the group if this is necessary in accordance with Article 6 paragraph 1 letter f GDPR for processing the customer satisfaction survey with the company you represent. Part of the data processing described in this declaration may be carried out on our behalf by external service providers with whom corresponding contracts have been concluded in accordance with Article 28 GDPR. These include in particular computer centers that store our databases, IT service providers that maintain our systems and consulting companies.

If we pass on personal data to our service providers, they may only use the data to perform their tasks. We have carefully selected and commissioned the service providers. They are contractually bound to our instructions, have suitable technical and organizational measures at their disposal to protect the rights of the persons concerned and are regularly monitored by us.

In addition to the right of revocation, you are entitled to the following rights if the legal requirements according to Art. 15 to 22 GDPR are met:

- Right of access to your personal data stored by us pursuant to Art. 15 GDPR; in particular, you may obtain information on the processing purposes, the category of personal data, the categories of recipients to whom your data has been or will be disclosed, the planned storage period and the origin of your data, unless it has been collected directly from you.
- Right to correction of incorrect data or to completion of correct data according to Art. 16 GDPR

- Right to deletion of your data stored by us in accordance with Art. 17 GDPR, insofar as no legal or contractual retention periods or other legal obligations or rights to further storage are to be observed.
- Right to limit the processing of your data in accordance with Art. 18 GDPR if the accuracy of the data is disputed by you, the processing is unlawful but you refuse to have it deleted; the person responsible no longer needs the data but you need it to assert, exercise or defend legal claims or you have objected to the processing in accordance with Art. 21 GDPR
- Right to data transfer in accordance with Art. 20 GDPR, i.e. the right to receive selected data stored about you by us in a conventional, machine-readable format, or to request the transfer to another responsible person.

You can revoke your consent at any time. With the revocation, the processing based on consent will no longer be continued in the future without affecting the lawfulness of the processing until revocation. Pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR you also have the right to complain to the data protection supervisory authority responsible for COVESTRO (in North Rhine-Westphalia the competent supervisory authority is the State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information of North Rhine-Westphalia, Kavalleriestraße 2-4 in 40213 Düsseldorf). You can also contact the data protection authority of your federal state.
